

2005-19

>>> <kirkb00@comcast.net> 9/8/2006 11:36:40 AM >>>

Without a doubt a juror should be able to keep notes and create a case notebook with documents, instructions and other related material. The jury should be able to easily submit questions to be answered by anyone called to testify (as long as the question can be legally asked).

But most of all participation in a jury should be voluntary.

I seriously doubt anyone does a good job when they are threatened in to participation.